The Funfair organised on 7th February 2024 at Shree Naranbhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, was a resounding success, bringing joy and excitement to participants of students of different semester. The funfair was organized by Cultural Coordinators Dr. Sonal Solanki, Mr. Bhumini Pathak, Mrs. Divya Solanki and Dr. Tanvi Desai. The event aimed to provide a day of fun-filled activities and entertainment for all the students. This eagerly anticipated event brought together students, faculty, and staff for a day filled with fun activities, delicious food, and memorable. Participants set up their stalls and displayed their own products. The college was decorated with colourful banners splashed with eye-catching advertisements under the supervision of cultural co-ordinators. Numerous food stalls offered a wide range of delicious treats including Panipuri, Sevपुरi, Khasta kachori, Chana Chatpati, Khakhra Pizza Aalupuri, coco, ice-cream, Brownie Etc. All faculties of different colleges visited the stalls and savoured the food-items designed and prepared by students of the college. The students said the funfair was one such activity that helped them come out of dreary routines and have fun with friends and class fellows. The light music added to fun.

The Funfair Day celebration held at our college resonated with great success, providing a day filled with joy, laughter, and excitement for all participants. Through its diverse range of activities and lively atmosphere, the event succeeded in fostering a sense of community spirit and togetherness within the college campus, leaving attendees eagerly anticipating future gatherings and celebrations.
